2012 PARTY BOOKLET

“The table of [God] is forever spread,
and on it are the gifts of Life, including health, happiness, joy, and success in living. Good can be found anywhere, if we look for it. Abundance can spring from want, peace from confusion, and joy from unhappiness, right where we are.”

— Ernest Holmes, Living the Science of Mind

Be a gracious guest

1. Please let your host know if you have any food allergies or dietary restrictions. Be aware that not all hosts will be able to accommodate all dietary restrictions. Parties that offer vegetarian fare have been noted in the program.
2. Please arrive at your party on time, and leave at the appointed time.
3. We ask you to be respectful of the host's home and property. Our hosts have donated food, time and the use of their homes to make a divine meal for other congregants; please treat their homes as sacred spaces!

Sonnet 75

So are you to my thoughts as food to life

by William Shakespeare

So are you to my thoughts as food to life,
Or as sweet-seasoned showers are to the ground;
And for the peace of you I hold such strife
As 'twixt a miser and his wealth is found.
Now proud as an enjoyer, and anon
Doubting the filching age will steal his treasure;
Now counting best to be with you alone,
Then bettered that the world may see my pleasure;
Sometimes all full with feasting on your sight,
And by and by clean starved for a look;
Possessing or pursuing no delight
Save what is had, or must from you be took.
Thus do I pine and surfeit day by day,
Or gluttoning on all, or all away.
